

while, I am by no means a staunch Kerry supporter, nor do I even intend to vote for him at this point, I find the plans to air "Stolen Honor" to be simply disgusting. It is absolutely obnoxious that Sinclair is airing a biased documentary as if it is balanced news. I would find the airing of Fahrenheit 9-11 in the days before the election on public airways to be just as distasteful.

while it seems the FCC will not step in to stop the airing of such propaganda due to first amendment rights, I can certainly exercise my rights by refraining from patronizing advertisers or anyone connected with Sinclair Broadcast Group, which I certainly intend to do.

The level that politics has sunk to in this country is extremely sad, and it is unfortunate that the American people are the ones who are suffering the ultimate consequences. Is it no wonder why we are so disillusioned with and mistrustful of the government?
